

Kidfest 2012 planned Friday at Cloverleaf

ENTERPRISE – Kidfest 2012 will celebrate Wallowa County's rural ranching lifestyle from 3:30 to 7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 5, at Cloverleaf Hall.

The free annual event for children and their families will feature games, crafts, many activity booths from a variety of community partners, door prizes and a petting zoo.

Families are also invited to a free dinner.

A Health and Safety Fair will be one of Kidfest's attractions.

Kidfest is organized every year by Building Healthy Families.

A CLUCKING GOOD TIME AT KIDFEST

Jeanette Johnson of Community Connections hands over a chicken to Camryn Miller, 3, of Enterprise just to hold for a little fun Friday Oct. 5, at Kidfest held in Cloverleaf Hall. It was packed with children and families during the annual event.
